

Out-of-Borough EXPERIENCE

Take to the bridges and tunnels to explore tasteful destinations in New York's four other boroughs.

If long waits aren't a problem, check out The Strand or Sanford's in Astoria. At The Strand, house-smoked meat is on order, whether added to your pancake stack or in the "meat and potato" entrée with brisket or beef short ribs. Sanford's prix fixe brunch with a drink is one of the best bargains around, and the line outside is testimonial to the food. Try Pasticceria Bruno in Staten Island, where the fresh pastries, entrées and champagne can't be beat. Make time for The Clock Bar in the historic South Bronx clock tower for a broad spectrum of Mediterranean flavors in an intimate setting. Spice up the day with huevos rancheros, tacos or ceviche at Gran Electrica in Dumbo, where the excellent cocktail list goes with anything. How could you resist brunch at a restaurant called Egg? At this Williamsburg crowd-pleaser, the homemade buttermilk biscuits are a must-have, especially when savoring any of the namesake dishes. All six of these are worth exploring!
