

25 Places to Hang Out with Big Groups in Astoria

by Michel Dominguez

The process of getting a big group of friends together to go out can be painful. It can also be the reason your night was so amazing. The logistics aren't always easy, but celebrating an occasion or just getting together with all of your closest friends is always sure to be a good time.

Luckily, Astoria rocks as a big group neighborhood. Here are some great locations to take your group (we're talking 8+) for any occasion. Don't forget to call ahead!

Sanford's

With its newly renovated space, now doubled in size, Sanford's has plenty of room for large groups and a great breakfast menu with something for everyone.

Good for: breakfast, brunch, lunch, dinner, late night drink, especially whisky
